

Ancient Way Fall Festival 2009

Programs at El Morro National Monument

Saturday, October 3rd

10:00AM-12:00PM

Join us for a ranger-led hike to the top of El Morro! Along the way, we'll visit Atsinna Ruins to learn about the ancient Puebloans who built a thriving community high on the cuesta. For this two-mile, slightly strenuous hike, wear sturdy shoes and bring water, sunscreen, and a hat.

10:30AM-4:30PM

Many people from around the world have come to appreciate the intricate designs and beauty of Acoma Pottery. Join us as local artisan Tina Francis demonstrates the craftsmanship of traditional and contemporary Acoma pottery.

Sunday, October 4th

9:30AM-11:00AM

Calling all birders! Catch the fall migrants on this guided bird walk geared toward novice and seasoned birders alike. The walk is fairly easy and entirely on a paved trail. Bring binoculars and a field guide if you have them.

10:30AM-4:30PM

Pottery holds a special place in the history of the Navajo people. Join us as a local artisan, Damon Tso, Jr., demonstrates the hand crafting of traditional and contemporary Navajo pottery that is both beautiful and useful.

El Morro National Monument is located at E. Highway 53, Mile Marker 44.6, Ramah, NM. Programs are subject to cancellation based on weather conditions. Park entrance fee is $3.00 per adult. For more information call the El Morro Visitor Center at (505) 783-4226 or visit www.nps.gov/elmo.
